SCDOI File Number 126922(05-400)

Default Order Revoking
All Licensing Privileges

This matter comes before me pursuant to a Letter of Allegation and Notice of Opportunity for Public Hearing served, as required within SC Code Ann. § 38-3-170 (Supp. 2005), by the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance upon the above named respondent, a licensed South Carolina resident insurance producer, by both certified mail, return receipt requested, and by regular mail on or about December 16, 2005.

That letter informed Matthew Vrooman of his right to request a public hearing upon the allegations of impropriety contained within the letters against him. The letter further warned that his failure to make a timely, written request would result in my summary revocation of his license to do business as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina. Despite those warnings, respondent has failed to respond. On April 11, 2006, therefore, counsel for the Department filed an Affidavit of Default, and submitted the entire matter directly to me for my summary decision based solely on the record.

The letter alleged, and I now find as fact, that while licensed to do business as a resident insurance producer within the State of South Carolina, Matthew Vrooman was convicted of the crime of grand larceny, more than $1,000, but less than $5,000 dollars, by the Berkeley County Court of General Sessions. This act, as alleged, is a direct violation of SC Code Ann. § 38-43-130 (Supp. 2005). That Code section provides that “the Director or his designee may revoke or suspend a producer’s license after ten day’s notice...when it appears that a producer...has willfully deceived or dealt unjustly with the citizens of this State.” This Code section goes on in Subsection (C)(6) to include “having been convicted of a felony.” Similarly, §38-43-247(B) notes: “failure to report any criminal prosecution taken in any jurisdiction.”

In accordance with my findings of fact, and considering Mr. Vrooman’s complete refusal to avail himself of his opportunity to be heard, I now conclude, as a matter of law, that he willfully deceived and dealt unjustly with the citizens of South Carolina, thereby violating SC Code Ann. § 38-43-130(C)(6), and §38-43-247(B) (Supp. 2005), and that his licensing privileges should be revoked.

This administrative disciplinary order is a public record subject to the disclosure requirements of the State of South Carolina's Freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§ 30-4-10, et seq. (1991 and Supp. 2005). Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit or to deprive any person of any private right of action under the law. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit, in any manner, the criminal jurisdiction of any law enforcement or judicial officer. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit the statutory duty of the Director of Insurance, exercised either directly or through the Department of Insurance, to "report to the Attorney General or other appropriate law enforcement officials criminal violations of the law relative to the business of insurance or the provisions of this title which he considers necessary to report." SC Code Ann. § 38-3-110 (4) (Supp. 2005).

It is therefore ordered that Matthew D. Vrooman's license to transact business as a resident insurance producer within the State of South Carolina be, and is hereby, revoked, and that no license, issued through the State of South Carolina's Department of Insurance is to be issued to him.

It is further ordered that a copy of this Order be transmitted to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners for distribution to its current member states and to each insurer for which the respondent is currently licensed, through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance, as a resident insurance producer within the State of South Carolina.

This order becomes effective as of the date of my signature below.

Affidavit of Default

Personally appeared before me David Belton, who, being duly sworn, stated that at all times relevant to this Affidavit of Default he was an attorney representing the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance in this administrative action. He further stated the following:

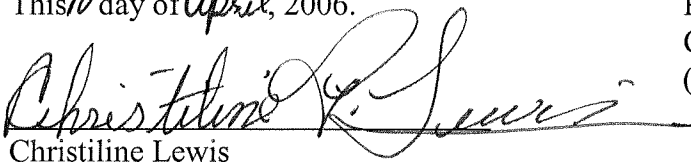

The Department served notice on Matthew D. Vrooman at the address detailed above, by a Letter of Allegation and Notice of Opportunity for a Public Hearing that the Department would request the Director of Insurance to summarily revoke his license to act as a resident insurance producer within the State of South Carolina in thirty days. The Department served the Notice, pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-170 (Supp. 2005), by "depositing it in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the last known addresses of the person and registered with the return receipt requested." That Notice further informed the respondent of his opportunity, within thirty days, to request in writing a public hearing.

The United States Postal Services attempted service of the Notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, and by regular mail, at the last known addresses, on or about January 20 and 25, 2006, as well as on February 4, 2006, to no avail. The letters were returned to the Department by the U. S. Postal Services as: "Unclaimed/Unable to Forward." Mr. Vrooman has made no request for a public hearing or any other response to the Notice. The time in which to do so has expired. He is now in default.
